

Catalin Lungu
Vice-President, AIIR

University teacher at The Technical University for Civil Engineering, since 1996; at present associate professor at The Technical University for Civil Engineering, and invited professor at The Bucharest University of Economic Studies, The Technical Military Academy and The Grenoble INP (Institut National Polytechnique de Grenoble), Ecole Nationale Supérieure de l'Énergie, l'Eau et l'Environnement ENSE 3; vice-dean of the Building Services Engineering Faculty, since 2016 and Senate member of The Technical University for Civil Engineering, since 2012.

Vice-President of AIIR - The Romanian Association for Building Services Engineers since 2012; Vice-President of REHVA – The Federation of European Heating, Ventilation and Air Conditioning Associations, since 2017; the chair of the committee organising the Romanian Conference on Energy Performance of Buildings (RCEPB), since 2009; personal counselor of the Romanian Minister of European Funds (2016); chair of the organising committee of the HVAC world congress CLIMA 2019 (2016-2019).