

Simone Alessandri

Director Governmental Relations, eu.bac

Simone Alessandri is the Director Governmental Relations of eu.bac, the European Building Automation and Controls Association.

He joined eu.bac in 2016, representing the Industry towards the European Institutions, focusing in particular on important frameworks such as the revised Energy Performance of Buildings Directive (EPBD) and Ecodesign BACS.

Simone, 30 years old, holds a Master of Law from the University of Bologna and a Master of Diplomatic Studies from SIOI-Diplomatic Institute of the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Prior to eu.bac, he worked for almost two years as a Policy Advisor to a Member of the European Parliament.