

Mihai Scumpieru

Manager of Mitsubishi Electric Europe
Brussels Representative Office

Mihai Scumpieru is manager of Mitsubishi Electric Europe Brussels Representative Office, the European affairs office of Mitsubishi Electric which is a leading brand in HVAC industry, electronics, factory automation, automotive equipment and beyond.

He has a background in international cooperation policy with a focus on environmental legislation and holds a Master of Science from the Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University in Japan. Mihai 's proven experience in the European affairs spans more than a decade during which he has dealt with important EU legislative dossiers ranging from energy and eco-design to chemicals and waste to climate change and resource efficiency all affecting a wide range of industrial sectors and products.

He currently holds the positions of Chair of European Partnership for Energy and the Environment (EPEE) F-gas Working Group, Chair of Japan Business Council in Europe (JBCE) Environment and Energy Committee, Chair of JBCE WEEE Issue Group and is an active member of other trade associations as well.